A Prayer for Penitence

Lord, we have entered into the Lenten season
And your Church prepares for Easter.
I pray that your people acknowledge their sins
And come before your throne for forgiveness.
I pray that we show our sorrow, and regret
For our wayward ways, and return to you.
For I know you are merciful, Oh, Lord.
I feel sorrow, for my ways separate me from
The path of righteousness.
I feel relief for you know my needs.
I feel joy for you hear my cries.
I know redemption for your mercies are endless.
I pray that we all show our love for you during Lent
By abstaining from an Earthly pleasure.
But, during Lent, if I give up nothing else,
I will give up my love of self.
My wants are not always your ways.
I start anew. I prepare my body for the Coming of the great day of celebration.
The day of rejoicing in the resurrection
Of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Preparing Our Hearts

Focus On the Lord

Out of the depths I cry to you Lord;
let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy,
for with the Lord is unfailing love
and with him full redemption
Psalms 130:1-2,7
