A Prayer for a Purposeful Life

Lord, when young Daniel was a captive in Babylon

He purposed his life to you and chose not the way
Of his world at that time.

His purpose was to be obedient to you.

We have entered a new year and away from a difficult one.

Our purpose will be difficult to see if we do not focus on you.

I pray we understand there is a difference in
Not choosing the way of the world and withdrawing from the world.

You created our world as it is for your purpose.

You told us by your word that you know the plans for us.

You have a purpose for each of us and I pray we
Each seek that purpose and fulfill it.

I pray we each understand the foundation of our faith

Is to be a light unto the world
Especially in the darkest of times.

The one unifying purpose of all Christians is to let the world

See the light of Jesus in our lives

As we go about our business out in the world.

I pray that all understand; when man ignores his purpose

He then forgets who he is and what life means.

I pray we remember our hope is in your promises

And our meaning is in your loving purpose for each of us.

I pray in the name of Jesus. Amen.

"For I know the plans I have for you,
plans to prosper you
and not to harm you,
plans to give you hope
and a future".

Jeremiah 29:11
