*"For those we remember
so fondly"*

Making a Right Beginning is a brief devotional meant to stimulate interest in Lent within those who are unfamiliar with the liturgical season. The book begins with an introduction to Lent, and the eight reflections to follow are meant to cultivate reflection on the relation of Lenten themes to the life of Christian discipleship.

A Dangerous Prayer

Lord, If I live in safety can I truly serve you?

None of your disciples lived in comfort and safety.

I hide my fears in the deep well of my mind.

I am scared, fearful of my insecurity.

My words honor you, but does what is in my heart do the same?

Do I do what is right in the eyes of people

But not what is right in the way of you Lord?

What do you think of me?

I pray that I do relinquish myself to you and you take

From me that which is not of you.

Take from me the place where I feel I am most right,

For it is there that I am sure I am most wrong.

I pray for a heart-changing event.

Lead me God, direct my path and guide me along the way.

I am prepared to see what you might show me.

With the Holy Spirit in me I have the faith to ask

And the courage to obey.

The moist clay of my being is in your hands.

I pray to be what you want me to be Lord.

In Christ's name, Amen

And see if there be any grievous way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting!

Hiding our sin causes
us to hide from God
