Making a Right Beginning is a brief devotional meant to stimulate interest in Lent within those who are unfamiliar with the liturgical season. The book begins with an introduction to Lent, and the eight reflections to follow are meant to cultivate reflection on the relation of Lenten themes to the life of Christian discipleship.

A Prayer of Joy

*Lord, you know what the last week was.
It was a time to count my blessings.
Unfortunately, a week was not long enough.
I will continue to think of all the ways you have blessed me.
I was cold but secure in the provisions you provided.
I was safe in my home and in your care.
The moments of each day are a special gift.
When I think of all you have blessed me with
The smiles return, the sun comes out, and the music plays.
But the true blessings are hidden in the depths of my heart.
For there is held all the love you have brought into my life.
It is a treasure of immeasurable wealth.
You have made me rich beyond my wildest dreams.
I am not only grateful for your blessings,
But also for the struggles I have faced.
For hardships often prepare ordinary people
For an extraordinary destiny.
But I count all these for naught
Against the blessing of the gift of
Salvation through your son Christ Jesus.
It is his name I pray. Amen.*

*But be sure to fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart,
consider what great things
he has done for you.*
